ISSUE

The issue is whether DHS properly excluded medical expenses in determining Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) eligibility.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1. On 13, Claimant applied for FAP benefits, Medical Assistance (MA) and cash assistance.
- 2. Claimant's application reported an unspecified amount of medical expenses.
- 3. On [13, DHS denied Claimant's FAP benefit application due to excess income, without factoring Claimant's reported medical expenses.
- 4. On 13, DHS denied Claimant's cash assistance application due to excess income.

- 5. On 13, DHS determined Claimant to be eligible for Medicaid, effective /2013, subject to a monthly $2131 deductible.
- 6. On 11/13, Claimant requested a hearing to dispute MA, cash assistance and "other" eligibility; Claimant testified "other" was intended to dispute the FAP benefit denial.
- 7. Claimant testified that she concedes that the DHS determinations concerning cash and MA eligibility were proper.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015. Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) and Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

Prior to a substantive analysis of Claimant's hearing request, it should be noted that Claimant's request noted that Claimant required special arrangements to participate in the administrative hearing. Claimant testified that she has multiple ailments and that she might need to appear for the hearing via telephone if she was unwell on the day of hearing. As it happened, Claimant appeared for the hearing and stated that she needed no particular accommodation. The hearing was conducted accordingly.

Claimant requested a hearing, in part, to dispute a denial of FAP benefits. FAP benefit budget factors include: income, standard deduction, mortgage expenses utility credit, medical expenses, child support expenses, day care expenses, group size and senior/disability/disabled veteran status. During the hearing, all of the budget factors were discussed with Claimant. The only factor disputed by Claimant was DHS' failure to factor medical expenses.

DHS is to only consider the medical expenses of senior disabled, disabled veteran person in the eligible group or SDV persons disqualified for certain reasons. BEM 554 (7/2013), p. 8. DHS is to verify allowable medical expenses including the amount of reimbursement, at initial application and redetermination. Id., p. 11.

DHS is tell the client what verification is required, how to obtain it, and the due date. BAM 130 (7/2013), p. 3. DHS is to use the DHS-3503, Verification Checklist (VCL), or for MA redeterminations, the DHS-1175, MA Determination Notice, to request verification. Id. It was not disputed that Claimant reported medical expenses. It was not disputed that DHS failed to factor Claimant's medical expenses in the FAP determination. It was not disputed that Claimant failed to verify the expenses, but it was also not disputed that DHS failed to request proof of the expenses. DHS should have requested proof of the expenses prior to the application denial. It is found that the failure by DHS to mail Claimant a Verification Checklist to request proof of Claimant's medical expenses was improper.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that Claimant withdrew her hearing request concerning cash assistance and MA benefit eligibility. Claimant's hearing request is PARTIALLY DISMISSED.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that DHS improperly determined Claimant's FAP benefit eligibility. It is ordered that DHS perform the following actions:

- (1) reinstate Claimant's application dated /13 requesting FAP benefits;
- (2) initiate processing of Claimant's application subject to the finding that DHS must request proof of medical expenses.

The actions taken by DHS are REVERSED.
