FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Claimant applied for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits on September 16, 2013.
2. The Claimant was entitled to receive expedited benefits.
3. The Claimant added her [REDACTED] as a member of the group and a resident of the household on or about October 10, 2013.
4. The Department used the income from the Claimant's [REDACTED] to determine the group's eligibility.

5. On October 25, 2013, the Department determined the Claimant was not eligible for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits because the group's gross income exceeded income limits for the program.
6. The Claimant does not dispute the propriety of the income listed for the group.
7. At the hearing, the Claimant testified her [REDACTED] is not living in the home; they are separated. However, the [REDACTED] pays all expenses at the residence.

The Claimant listed her [REDACTED] as a member of the group residing in her home for purposes of calculating Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits. She does not dispute that the Department properly calculated income for this group.

However, the Claimant stated at the hearing, her [REDACTED] does not reside in the home. She stated they have an arrangement that she will not seek child support if he pays the expenses of the home.

[REDACTED] testified that she confirmed the Claimant's husband was in the home.

The Claimant's testimony was conflicting. She told the Department her [REDACTED] resided in the home. Then, when the Claimant learned her [REDACTED] adversely affected benefits, she changed the story.

The Administrative Law Judge finds the stronger evidence indicates the Claimant's [REDACTED] is in the home. Therefore, it was proper to use his income to determine eligibility for the group.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department properly closed the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits. acted in accordance with Department policy when it closed the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.
