ISSUE

Did the Department properly calculate Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On August 19, 2013, the Department sent Claimant a new hire notice.
2. The Department requested copies of check stubs and a verification of employment. Claimant did complete and return the new hire notice in a timely manner.
3. On September 25, 2013, Claimant requested a hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual

(BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

At the hearing, Claimant testified that, although she had been newly hired, her employer did not schedule her for work for a period of time.

Claimant states that she informed the Department of the change in employment and of her being unscheduled for work with her new employer for a period of time.

The Department claims that it did not receive check stubs following Claimant's change in employment. The lack of check stubs is not outside the norm when there has been a change in employment. In this instance, the Department should have used the "best information available." BAM 130 (July 2013).

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

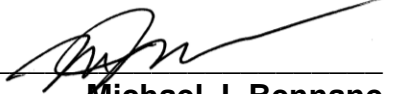

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it failed to rebudget Claimant's FAP benefits when Claimant changed employment and was not employed for a period of time. .
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
