CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, PL 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and 400.57a and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1396-1396w-5, and is implemented by 42 CFR 400.200 to 1008.59. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and MCL 400.105.

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315 and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program is established by the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3151-.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 601-619, 670-679c, and 1397-1397m-5; the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, PL 101-508, 42 USC 9858 to 9858q; and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, PL 104-193. The program is implemented by 45 CFR 98.1-99.33. The Department administers the program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and Mich Admin Code, R 400.5001-.5020.

Direct Support Services (DSS) is established by the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b. The program is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10 and 400.57a and Mich Admin Code R 400.3603.

The State SSI Payments (SSP) program is established by 20 CFR 416.2001-.2099 and the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1382e. The Department administers the program pursuant to MCL 400.10.

The Department argued that claimant failed to complete the redetermination process by failing to return asset verifications properly requested by the Department.

The Department requested the verifications in question on [REDACTED], 2013. Prior to the due date, the claimant contacted the Department to let them know that, due to outsourcing of document requests at her bank, the verifications would be late. On [REDACTED], 2013, the Department received a direct mailing from the bank that contained an incomplete asset verification form. The Department did not alert the claimant that the verification form was incomplete, but instead proceeded with the case closure on [REDACTED] 2013.

BAM 130 only allows for case closure if the claimant refuses to return verification. In the present case, claimant exercised due diligence by giving the provided forms to her bank, notifying the Department of the bank's delay, and ensuring that the forms were returned directly to the Department to ensure against unnecessary delays.

BAM 130 specifically states that if neither the claimant or the Department can obtain verification despite a reasonable effort, use the best information, or if no information is available, to use best judgment.

Claimant clearly put forth a reasonable effort; any lack of information was due to the third party in question. Furthermore, the claimant had no reason to know that the verifications submitted by the bank were insufficient; they were not returned to her, and the Department did not let the claimant know that they were insufficient. Any fault to be assigned in a failure to secure verifications must therefore fall upon the bank for its refusal, and the Department for failing to inform the claimant that there were problems.

As such, the Department was incorrect when it continued with the case closure in question; per policy, the Department should have used its best information to determine continuing eligibility.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it .

 did not act in accordance with Department policy when it closed claimant's case for failing to return asset verification.

failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
