CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, Rule 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AAC, Rule 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, Rule 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

Additionally, in this matter Claimant has asserted that the $618 received in total by her three minor children due to her husband's receiving RSDI should not be included in group income for purposes of calculating the Claimant's FAP benefits. The Claimant asserts that the Social Security made this income available for her children to be used for their personal expenses associated with their schooling and other necessities.

The Department included the RSDI income received by the minor children when calculating the Claimant's FAP benefits and did so correctly. BEM 503 requires that income received as RSDI must be counted and included as unearned income. It provides: RSDI is a federal benefit administered by the Social Security Administration that is available to retired and disabled individuals and their dependents and survivors of deceased workers. Bridges counts the gross benefit amount as unearned income. BEM 503 pp. 21 (11/1/12). BEM 550, pp 1 (2/1/12) further requires that the Department budget the entire amount of countable earned and unearned income. The amounts of unearned income received by the Claimant's FAP group from RSDI were confirmed as correct and the FAP budget was reviewed for its correctness. The Claimant's argument that because she was assigned as protective payee for her children the income they received was not received by her and thus should not be included when computing FAP benefits does not change the fact that the RSDI was received by her children who are FAP group members.

Based upon that review of the FAP budget and the Policy outlined above, it must be determined that the Department correctly included the dependent children's RSDI benefits as income when computing the FAP benefits, and the calculation made by the Department is correct.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that, due to excess income, the Department properly improperly

- denied Claimant's application
- reduced Claimant's benefits
- closed Claimant's case

for: AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department did act properly did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's AMP FIP FAP MA SDA CDC decision is AFFIRMED REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.
