CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Public Law 104-193, 42 USC 601, et seq. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3101 through Rule 400.3131. FIP replaced the Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) program effective October 1, 1996.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and MCL 400.105.

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315, and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program, which provides financial assistance for disabled persons, is established by 2004 PA 344. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 2000 AACS, R 400.3151 through Rule 400.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996. The program is implemented by Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 98 and 99. The Department provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and 1999 AC, R 400.5001 through Rule 400.5015.

The Claimant testified that she had to move in a hurry and was homeless for a bit because her previous home was infested with bed bugs. The case notes in evidence show that the Claimant told her Michigan Works case worker that she was having an issue with bed bugs, and the Michigan Works case worker had been apparently waiting for the Claimant to fax some documentation of the issue, but none was received and her case was then sent into triage. It is not contested that the Claimant's DHS-2444, Notice of Non-compliance scheduling the triage was returned as undeliverable. The Claimant testified that she thought it was sufficient that she let her Michigan Works case worker know of her new address. She just assumed the Michigan Works case worker would let her DHS case worker know her new address, though the Michigan Works case worker did not tell the Claimant she would do that. Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 105 (2012) p. 7, provides that the Claimant report changes affecting eligibility within 10 days to her Department worker and a change in address is one of the changes the Claimant is required to report. The Administrative Law Judge takes official notice that, when applying for assistance, a Claimant must sign the application acknowledging her responsibilities to report such changes.

It is not contested that the Claimant did not attend triage as he DHS-2444, Notice of Non-compliance was sent to her old address. Nor did she telephone to say she could not attend and therefore no good cause was found for her non-compliance. Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) 233A (2013) p. 6, provides that the penalty for noncompliance without good cause is FIP case closure. The Administrative Law Judge therefore concludes that when the Department took action to close the Claimant's FIP case, the Department was acting in accordance with its policy.

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department properly denied Claimant's application       improperly denied Claimant's application properly closed Claimant's case               improperly closed Claimant's case for:  AMP  FIP  FAP  MA  SDA  CDC.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, finds that the Department  did act properly.       did not act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's  AMP  FIP  FAP  MA  SDA  CDC decision is  AFFIRMED  REVERSED for the reasons stated on the record.
