The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, including testimony of witnesses, finds as material fact:

1. On March 21, 2013, the Claimant applied for FAP benefits.
2. On March 27, 2013, the Claimant participated in an interview.
3. On March 27, 2013, the Department sent the Claimant a verification checklist. The verification checklist indicated the Claimant had specific verifications due by April 8, 2013.
4. As of April 8, 2013, the Claimant had not yet returned the requested verifications.

7. On May 9, 2013, the Claimant requested a hearing to dispute the FAP denial.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are found in the Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), the Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and the Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The FAP [formerly known as the Food Stamp (F S) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and 1999 AC, R 400.3001 through Rule 400.3015.

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes completion of necessary forms. Clients must completely and truthfully answer all questions on forms and in interviews.

The client might be unable to answer a question about himself or another person whose circumstances must be known. Allow the client at least 10 days (or other timeframe specified in policy) to obtain the needed information.

Testimony and other evidence must be weighed and considered according to its reasonableness.¹ Moreover, the weight and credibility of this evidence is generally for the fact-finder to determine.² In evaluating the credibility and weight to be given the testimony of a witness, the fact-finder may consider the demeanor of the witness, the reasonableness of the witness's testimony, and the interest, if any, the witness may have in the outcome of the matter.³

I have carefully considered and weighed the testimony and other evidence in the record and find the Claimant never returned the requested verifications as requested and required by the due date. Although the Claimant alleged to have faxed to the Department the requested documentation, I found the testimony to be self-serving in the absence of a fax confirmation page. And although the Claimant alleged to have a copy of the confirmation page, she had failed to present it to this hearing office prior to the hearing. Therefore, I find that more likely than not, the Claimant did not provide the Department with the appropriate verifications and consequently the Department's actions were appropriate.

Accordingly, I AFFIRM the Department's actions in this matter.

² Dep't of Community Health, 274 Mich App at 372; People v Terry, 224 Mich App 447, 452; 569 NW2d 641 (1997).

³ People v Wade, 303 Mich 303 (1942), cert den, 318 US 783 (1943).

DECISION AND ORDER

I find based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Department did act properly.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
