PROCEDURAL HISTORY:

The hearing was originally scheduled to commence on August 27, 2013. Administrative Law Judge Corey Arendt, upon the Department's request, issued an Order Granting Adjournment. The hearing was then rescheduled for December 17, 2013 and was held on that date.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $ [REDACTED] or more, or
  - the total OI amount is less than $ [REDACTED] and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (2011), p. 10.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Respondent completed an DHS-1171, Assistance Application acknowledging that she understood her responsibility to report changes in household circumstances to the Department within 10 days of those changes occurring. The Respondent signed the DHS-1046, Semi-Annual Contact report on April 7, 2011 and DHS-1010, Redetermination Form on September 30, 2011. On each of those forms, the Respondent failed to report an increase in household income over the simplified reporting limit. The Respondent's [REDACTED] was [REDACTED] between [REDACTED] and had unreported earned income. Between [REDACTED] the Respondent's [REDACTED] again had unreported earned income. Because the Respondent failed to report her [REDACTED] [REDACTED] on the DHS-1046, Semi-Annual Contact report, which was completed shortly after the Respondent's [REDACTED] began working again, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Respondent intentionally failed to report her [REDACTED] earned income. Based on the evidence in the record, the Administrative Law Judge also concludes that the Respondent intentionally failed to report that her [REDACTED] was [REDACTED] in [REDACTED], resulting in an OI for the month of [REDACTED]

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 12. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 13. Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 13. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16. In this case, it is alleged that this is the Respondent's first IPV in the FAP program. As such, the Respondent shall be personally disqualified from receiving FAP for 12 months.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. In this case, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that the Department has properly determined that the Respondent received a total OI of $2632.00 from both OI periods.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. Respondent  did commit an IPV by clear and convincing evidence.
2. Respondent  did receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED] from the following program(s)  FAP.

The Department is ORDERED to  initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of $ [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from  FAP for a period of  12 months.  24 months.  lifetime.
