CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Department of Human Services Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Schedules Manual (RFS).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, PL 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and 400.57a and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1396-1396w-5, and is implemented by 42 CFR 400.200 to 1008.59. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and MCL 400.105.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program is established by the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3151-.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 601-619, 670-679c, and 1397-1397m-5; the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, PL 101-508, 42 USC 9858 to 9858q; and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, PL 104-193. The program is implemented by 45 CFR 98.1-99.33. The Department administers the program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and Mich Admin Code, R 400.5001-.5020.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking Ols that are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - the total 01 amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $ [REDACTED] or more, or
 - the total 01 amount is less than $ [REDACTED] and

-)> the group has a previous IPV, or
-)> the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
-)> the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (7-1-13), p. 12.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an 01 exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (7-1-2013) p. 7; BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1; see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI8.01.

In this case, the OIG alleged that the Respondent intentionally failed to report a change in residency resulting in improper FAP benefit receipt. To be eligible for FAP benefits, a person must be a Michigan resident. BEM 220 (7-1-2013)

Loss of Michigan residency does not always coincide with simply leaving the State of Michigan. The Department no known policies preventing people from traveling outside of Michigan, though there is a DHS policy concerning the duration a person can be absent from a household before the person is considered out of the household.

FAP benefit group composition policy states that clients absent from a home for longer than 30-days are considered only temporarily absent if their location is known, the person lived with the group before an absence, there is a definite plan for return, the absence is expected to last 30-days or less - unless hospitalized. BEM212(10-1-2013), at page 3.

On review, the ALJ finds that 30-days is a reasonable bench mark from which to begin to gauge residency - absent a lawful excuse.

Supporting the OIG's presentation is credible evidence showing exclusive out of state FAP use beginning on January 15, 2012 and then running uninterrupted through September 27, 2013 in the State of [REDACTED] ida – without exception. While it is possible that Respondent maintained a Michigan residency for those 9-months by food purchase and planning – it is unlikely and unproven as the Respondent failed to appear and defend her status.

The differential grows even wider when it is considered that the State of [REDACTED] is not a borderline state. The simple distance factor is clear and firm evidence supporting a finding of lost Michigan residency for the Respondent.

Based on the presented evidence, Respondent is found to not be a Michigan resident as of January 15, 2012. However, this finding alone does not prove that an IPV was committed.

The OIG correctly assumed that Respondent intentionally failed to report a change in residency to continue receiving FAP benefits from Michigan. The Respondent clearly acknowledged her responsibility to report significant changes within 10-days at the conclusion of his DHS 1171 application [See Department's Exhibit A at pages 25 and 41]

The OIG's best evidence with regard to reporting, however, was in the breach where the Respondent obviously failed to a report a significant change to her ES within the required 10-days – after attesting in her application that her intention was to “remain in Michigan.” Supra, at page 25. The Respondent had the opportunity to present identification with a valid address, mortgage or relevant utility billings or produce witnesses familiar with her living arrangements. See a/so BEM 220. The requirement to report change is real and the Respondent did not appear for hearing to produce evidence or testimony that she complied. Obviously, non-appearance did not bolster the Respondent, but did bolster the Department's establishment of clear and convincing proof.

The Respondent had a motive to fail to report- that of obtaining free money without host-state responsibility.

Based on the presented evidence, the OIG established that Respondent intentionally failed to report a change in residency. Accordingly, it is found that the Respondent committed an IPV.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the 01. In this case, the record also demonstrates that the Respondent received an 01 of FAP in the amount of $ [REDACTED] for the time period referenced above. BAM 700 (7-1-2013)

The OIG argued that FAP benefits were over-issued to Respondent over the period of January 1, 2013 through May 20, 2013. The loss of residency initiated in December of 2012 and ran through June 9, 2013; accordingly, the FAP benefit overissuance period is correctly established based on the facts presented today. An 01 of $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits is established.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 12. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 13.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the 01 relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 13. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710 (7-1-2013), p. 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the record demonstrates that Respondent is guilty of her first FAP IPV- which carries a 12-month period of disqualification.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. Respondent did did not commit an IPV by clear and convincing evidence.
2. Respondent did did not receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED] from the following program(s) FIP FAP SDA CDC MA.

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of $ [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FIP FAP SDA CDC for a period of 12 months. 24 months. lifetime.
