The Department administers the program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and Mich Admin Code, R 400.5001-.5020.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $ [REDACTED] or more, or
 - the total OI amount is less than $ [REDACTED] and

- the group has a previous IPV, or
- the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
- the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
- the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (7-1-2013), p. 12.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (7-1-2013), p. 6; BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1; see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the OIG witness [REDACTED] provided credible, sufficient, un rebutted testimony and other credible evidence to establish that between the dates of December 19, 2012 through December 30, 2012 following a [REDACTED] it was determined that the Respondent improperly “loaned” her card to another in repayment for a private debt.

While investigating an unrelated case the local county detective learned of a possible welfare fraud incident involving the passing of the Respondent’s EBT card at a local [REDACTED]. The detective contacted [REDACTED] which was able to isolate the transactions in question – on [REDACTED]. He reported that the subject using the card was identified as [REDACTED] who was later interviewed. He acknowledged using the card as “[REDACTED].” He acknowledged that charges made between December 19, 2012 and January 2, 2013 were his own.

Between the dates of December 19, 2012 through December 30, 2012 the Respondent was responsible for improperly authorizing the use of her EBT to one not associated with her account. The OIG established misuse of the Respondent’s EBT totaling $ [REDACTED] overissuance of FAP benefits.

Supported by persuasive documentary evidence the OIG demonstrated the above referenced investigation as well as data indicating the Respondent’s intention to reside in Michigan and her declining the option to have others named to authorized use of her EBT card. As the Respondent had applied for and received EBT card benefits under three different names in the past – it could be easily assumed that she was familiar with the rules, rights and her responsibilities with regard to its use.

This testimony and evidence coalesced into a clear and firm belief that the Respondent was intentionally [REDACTED]. The Respondent’s conduct is clearly prohibited under BAM 105.

Based on the credible testimony and the documentary evidence, it is concluded that the OIG established, under a clear and convincing standard, that Respondent committed an IPV in this matter – resulting in OI of FAP $ [REDACTED]. See Department’s Exhibit A – throughout. This being the Respondent’s first IPV violation - a one year disqualification is appropriate.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 12. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 13.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

² See Department’s Exhibit A, at pages 8, 24, 25, 26 and 31. Accord; ,the investigating [REDACTED] from the [REDACTED] had reason to believe that the Respondent had returned to [REDACTED] to an unknown address. Department’s Ex. A, at page 32. At hearing the OIG agent testified that the fraudulent EBT card user [Matt Smith] has an enforcement hearing pending before the Agency in the near future.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1
