ISSUE

Did the Department properly process the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) September 4, 2013, Hearing Decision ordering the Department to process Claimant's March 29, 2013, application for Child Development and Care (CDC) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On March 29, 2013, Claimant filed a CDC application.
2. The Department denied the application, and Claimant requested a hearing.
3. At the August 1, 2013, hearing, the ALJ concluded that the Department had improperly denied Claimant's application based on failure of the Michigan Department of Education (MDE) to promptly assign Claimant's CDC provider a provider ID number.

4. In a September 4, 2013, Hearing Decision, the ALJ ordered the Department to reregister and reprocess Claimant's application using the provider ID number obtained from the MDE.
5. On November 15, 2013, Claimant filed a hearing request alleging that the Department had failed to comply with the ALJ's Hearing Decision.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 601-619, 670-679c, and 1397-1397m-5; the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, PL 101-508, 42 USC 9858 to 9858q; and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, PL 104-193. The program is implemented by 45 CFR 98.1-99.33. The Department administers the program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and Mich Admin Code, R 400.5001-.5020.

Additionally, in order to be eligible for CDC benefits, a client must establish that an eligible provider is providing care. BEM 703 (October 2012), p. 1. Providers that are not child care centers, group child care homes, or family child care homes must be enrolled by MDE. BEM 704 (March 2013), p. 1.

At the August 1, 2013, hearing, the ALJ concluded that Claimant's provider had completed all required certifications in January 2013 but MDE had not assigned her a provider ID number until May 2013. The ALJ ordered the Department to reregister Claimant's March 29, 2013, CDC application and "[b]egin reprocessing the application using the CDC provider ID number obtained by the MDE, in accordance with Department policy and consistent with [the] Hearing Decision."

The Department testified that it had reregistered and reprocessed Claimant's March 29, 2013, CDC application, but because Claimant's provider had not received a provider ID number from the MDE until May 2013, it denied Claimant CDC benefits from the March 29, 2013, application date to the May 2013 date on which the provider received her ID provider number. However, the ALJ concluded that Claimant and her provider had timely complied with all their obligations and the delay in obtaining the provider ID number was MDE's. When the ALJ ordered the Department to reprocess the March 29, 2013, application using the CDC provider ID number obtained from MDE, the provider ID number should have been considered as timely obtained as of the March 29, 2013, application. If the Department did not agree with the ALJ's decision, it could have requested a rehearing or reconsideration. See BAM 600 (July 2013), pp. 40-44.

The undersigned Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department did not act in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's CDC eligibility between March 29, 2013, the date of application, and May 2013, when MDE assigned Claimant's provider a provider ID number.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is REVERSED.

THE DEPARTMENT IS ORDERED TO BEGIN DOING THE FOLLOWING, IN ACCORDANCE WITH DEPARTMENT POLICY AND CONSISTENT WITH THIS HEARING DECISION, WITHIN 10 DAYS OF THE DATE OF MAILING OF THIS DECISION AND ORDER:
