ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits and close Claimant's Medical Assistance (MA) and her Food Assistance (FAP) cases?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1. On December 9, 2013, the Department sent Claimant a verification checklist directing Claimant to contact the Office of Child Support (OCS).
- 2. January 6, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of case action informing her that her FIP benefits were denied.
- 3. On February 4, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the denial of her FIP benefits and the closure of her FAP and MA cases.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, PL 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and 400.57a and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1396-1396w-5, and is implemented by 42 CFR 400.200 to 1008.59. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and MCL 400.105.

At the outset, it should be noted that this Administrative Law Judge called a phone number provided by the Department in an attempt to have the OCS take part in this hearing. When this Administrative Law Judge called the Department-provided number, a voice message was heard.

Claimant testified that she provided all of the information that she had about the father of her children and had no further information to give to the OCS.

This testimony was backed up by the testimony of Claimant's sister who testified that they attempted a number of different ways to gather further information about the father of Claimant's children.

This issue is controlled by a Michigan Appeals Court decision.

In Black v Dept of Social Services, 195 Mich App 27 (1992), the Court of Appeals addressed the issue of burden of proof in a non-cooperation finding. Specifically, the court in Black ruled that to support a finding of non-cooperation, the agency has the burden of proof to establish that the mother (1) failed to provide the requested verification and that (2) the mother knew the requested information. The Black court also emphasized the fact that the mother testified under oath that she had no further information and the agency failed to offer any evidence that the mother knew more than she was disclosing. Black at 32-34.

The Claimant and her sister both testified under oath that Claimant had no further information about the father of her children.

The Department representative was asked whether he had any evidence that Claimant was withholding information about the father of her children and responded in the negative.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department
<ul> <li>acted in accordance with Department policy when it</li> <li>did not act in accordance with Department policy when it closed Claimant's FAP and MA cases and denied her FIP application.</li> <li>failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it</li> </ul>
