MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING SYSTEM
ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

Reg. No.: 2013-69211
Issue No.: 3005
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: February 3, 2014
County: St. Joseph (00)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Christian Gardocki

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Human Services (DHS), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and R 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on February 3, 2014, from Detroit, Michigan. [REDACTED] Regulation Agent for the Office of Inspector General (OIG), testified on behalf of DHS. Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

The first issue is whether Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) by receiving Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits from multiple states.

The second issue is whether Respondent received an overissuance of benefits.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On [REDACTED], Respondent applied for FAP and MA benefits for herself and her child.
2. Over the period [REDACTED], Respondent received $3,266 in Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits and $4635.94 in MA benefits from the State of Michigan.

3. Over the periods of [REDACTED], Respondent also received FAP and Medicaid benefits from the State of [REDACTED].
4. On [REDACTED] DHS requested a hearing to impose a 10-year IPV disqualification against Respondent and to establish an over-issuance against Respondent for $3,266 in Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits and $4635.94 in MA benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015. Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) and Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

This hearing was requested by DHS, in part, to establish that Respondent committed an IPV. DHS may request a hearing to establish an IPV and disqualification. BAM 600 (8/2012), p. 3.

The client/authorized representative (AR) is determined to have committed an IPV by:

- A court decision.
- An administrative hearing decision.
- The client signing a DHS-826, Request for Waiver of Disqualification Hearing or DHS-830, Disqualification Consent Agreement or other recoupment and disqualification agreement forms. Id.

There is no evidence that Respondent signed a DHS-826 or DHS-830. There is also no evidence that a court decision found Respondent responsible for an IPV. Thus, DHS seeks to establish via administrative hearing that Respondent committed an IPV.

DHS regulations list the requirements for an IPV. A suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities. BAM 720 (1/2011), p. 1. see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6).

IPV is suspected when there is clear and convincing (emphasis added) evidence that the client or CDC provider has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. Id. A clear and convincing threshold to establish IPV is a higher standard than a preponderance of evidence standard and less than a beyond any reasonable doubt standard. It is a standard which requires reasonable certainty of the truth; something that is highly probable. Black's Law Dictionary 888 (6th ed. 1990).

DHS alleged that Respondent committed fraud by failing to update residency information for the purpose of receiving FAP benefits from multiple states. DHS has policy to address such allegations.

Benefit duplication means assistance received from the same (or same type of) program to cover a person's needs for the same month. BEM 222 (3/2013), p. 1. A person cannot receive FAP in more than one state for any month. Id., p. 2.

DHS presented Respondent's Assistance Application (Exhibits 12-31) dated [REDACTED]. Respondent's application reported a Michigan residential address. Respondent also noted that she was not receiving benefits from multiple states. DHS specialist notes indicated that Respondent worked in [REDACTED] in May (presumably intended to refer to 5/2011). It was noted that Respondent was in an abusive relationship.

DHS presented Respondent's State of Michigan FAP benefit purchase history (Exhibits 32-37). The evidence verified that Respondent exclusively spent Michigan-issued FAP benefits outside of Michigan over the period from [REDACTED] through [REDACTED].

DHS presented emails (Exhibits 38-40) to and from a [REDACTED] email address. The [REDACTED] v sender stated that Respondent received FAP and Medicaid benefits from the State of [REDACTED] over the period of 6/2011-5/2012.

DHS presented Respondent's State of Michigan FAP benefit issuance history (Exhibits 41-42). The history verified that Respondent received a total of $3266 in FAP benefits over the period of [REDACTED] through 4/2012.

DHS presented documentation verifying the cost of Respondent's Michigan-issued Medicaid coverage for the months of 7/2011-5/2012. The documents verified a total of $4635.94 paid for Respondent's and her child's Medicaid.

To be eligible for FAP benefits, a person must be a Michigan resident. BEM 220 (1/2012), p. 1. For FAP benefits, a person is considered a resident while living in Michigan for any purpose other than a vacation, even if there is no intent to remain in the state permanently or indefinitely. Id. For MA benefits, an individual is a Michigan resident if the individual lives in Michigan, except for a temporary absence, and intends to remain in Michigan permanently or indefinitely. Id., p. 2.

Concurrent receipt of FAP benefits from multiple states over an 11-month period is very persuasive evidence that Respondent intentionally failed to update residency information with DHS for the purpose of collecting FAP benefits from multiple states. Accordingly, DHS established that Respondent committed an IPV.

The standard disqualification period is used in all instances except when a court orders a different period. Id., p. 13. DHS is to apply the following disqualification periods to recipients determined to have committed IPV: one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV and lifetime for the third IPV. Id. DHS established a basis for a one-year disqualification against Respondent.

A person is disqualified for a period of 10 years if found guilty through the Administrative Hearing Process, convicted in court or by signing a repayment and disqualification agreement (e.g., DHS-826, DHS-830) of having made a fraudulent statement or representation regarding his identity or residence in order to receive multiple FAP benefits simultaneously. BEM 203 (10/2011), p. 1. DHS seeks to impose a 10-year disqualification against Respondent.

DHS established that Respondent fraudulently failed to report residency changes for the purposes of receiving FAP benefits from multiple states. A failure to report residency is not a purposeful misreporting arising to a 10-year disqualification.

The evidence established that Respondent lied by denying ongoing receipt of benefits from Missouri when applying for benefits from the State of Michigan. Technically, Respondent's misrepresentation was not a fraudulent statement regarding identity or residency.

The evidence tended to verify that Respondent was a Michigan resident at the time she applied for FAP and MA benefits on [REDACTED]. Respondent did not begin to purchase FAP benefits in [REDACTED] until [REDACTED].

Based on the presented evidence, it is found that Respondent did not make a fraudulent statement or representation regarding identity or residence in order to receive multiple FAP benefits simultaneously. Accordingly, a one-year disqualification is the appropriate penalty for Respondent's IPV.

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, DHS must attempt to recoup the over-issuance (OI). BAM 700 (12/2011), p. 1. An OI is the amount of benefits issued to the client group in excess of what they were eligible to receive. Id. Recoupment is a DHS action to identify and recover a benefit OI. Id.

DHS may pursue an OI whether it is a client-caused error or DHS error. Id., p. 5. Client and DHS error OIs are not pursued if the estimated OI amount is less than $125 per program. Id., p. 7. It was established that the error was client-caused.

DHS seeks to establish that Respondent received an over-issuance of $3,266 in FAP benefits and $4635.94 in MA benefits for the benefit periods from [REDACTED] through [REDACTED]. The amounts sought by DHS are the amounts of benefits received from the State of Michigan while Respondent received benefits from the State of [REDACTED]. All benefits issued to Claimant from Michigan while Respondent also received out-of-state benefits are found to be over-issued. Accordingly, DHS established that Respondent received an overissuance of $3,266 in FAP benefits and $4635.94 in MA benefits

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that DHS failed to establish that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation justifying a 10 year disqualification. The DHS hearing request is PARTIALLY DENIED.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that DHS established that Respondent committed an IPV justifying a one-year disqualification penalty. It is further found that DHS established that Respondent received an overissuance of $3,266 in FAP benefits and $4635.94 in MA benefits for the period of [REDACTED]. The DHS hearing request of DHS is PARTIALLY AFFIRMED.
