CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, PL 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and 400.57a and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

On March 6, 2014, the Claimant requested an adjournment of the instant hearing stating that his and the decided at the last minute to not take his case. On March 6, 2014, Administrative Law Judge addecided to this denied the Claimant's request for an adjournment. The Claimant objected to this denial during the hearing, but when questioned stated he had not yet retained another adjournment.

Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM) 233A (2013) p. 8, provides that the penalty for noncompliance without good cause is FIP case closure. The Administrative Law Judge therefore concludes that when the Department took action to close the Claimant's FIP case, the Department was acting in accordance with its policy. BEM 233A p. 8, instructs the Department's worker to close the individuals FIP case on the third occurrence of noncompliance and impose a lifetime sanction. In this case, the Department did just that in August 2013. The uncontested testimony was that the Claimant had a hearing for each of the three instances of noncompliance and the Department was upheld at each of those hearings.

Regulations governing the hearing and appeal process for applicants and recipients of public assistance in Michigan are found in Mich Admin Code, R 400.901 through R 400.951. Rule 400.903(1) provides as follows:

An opportunity for a hearing shall be granted to an applicant who requests a hearing because [a] claim for assistance is denied or is not acted upon with reasonable promptness, and to any recipient who is aggrieved by a Department action resulting in suspension, reduction, discontinuance, or termination of assistance.

During the instant hearing, the Claimant wished to argue the propriety of the previous sanctions imposed. Those issues have already been decided by a previous Administrative Law Judge when the Claimant originally availed himself of a right to a hearing on those issues. The Claimant's avenue of redress at this point, if timely, is to request a rehearing or reconsideration and/or to pursue the matter in Circuit Court. The Administrative Law Judge concludes that the evidence establishes that the Department was acting in accordance with Departmental policy when taking action to deny the Claimant's application for FIP.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department \boxtimes acted in accordance with Department policy when it took action to deny the Claimant's application for FIP.
