CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Additionally, the Claimant was a recipient of FAP. On December 12, 2013, the Department Caseworker sent the Claimant a [REDACTED]s, DHS 4635, for written verification of employment income that was due December 23, 2013. Department Exhibit's 1-2. The Claimant failed to provide the required verification of her employment that was due on December 23, 2013 of [REDACTED]. Department Exhibit's 1-2. As a result, the Department Caseworker sent the Claimant a notice that FAP would be increasing effective February 1, 2014. Department Exhibit's 5-6. BEM 220.

All Other Reported Changes

FAP Only

Act on a change reported by means other than a tape match within 10 days of becoming aware of the change.

Benefit Increases: Changes which result in an increase in the household's benefits must be effective no later than the first allotment issued 10 days after the date the change was reported, provided any necessary verification was returned by the due date. A supplemental issuance may be necessary in some cases. If necessary verification is not returned by the due date, take appropriate action based on what type of verification was requested. If verification is returned late, the increase must affect the month after verification is returned.

Example: Rich reports on March 23rd that he now has a shelter expense. Act on the change by April 2nd. May's benefits will be the first month affected because the 10th day after the change is reported falls in the next benefit period. Affect the April issuance if the action can be completed by March 31st.

If verification is required or deemed necessary, allow the household 10 days from the date the change is reported to provide the verification. The change must still affect the correct issuance month, for example the month after the month in which the 10th day after the change occurs.

Example: Rich reports a shelter change on March 21st. Verification is requested of his new shelter obligation on March 23rd. Rich provides the verification on April 2nd. Make the change to affect April's benefits by using a supplemental issuance.

If verification is required or deemed necessary but the client fails to return the verification within 10 days after the change was reported, but does provide the verification at a later date, act on the change within 10 days after the verification is provided.

Example: Using the previous example, Rich does not supply the shelter verification until April 6th. Act on the change by April 16th to affect May's benefits. No supplement is issued for April, due to Rich's failure to return the verification within 10 days.

During the hearing, the Department Caseworker stated that the Claimant expected her FAP to be increased for January 1, 2014. However, the Claimant's FAP increase was not reflected until February 1, 2014 because a Department Caseworker has 10 days to process a change, which was not done until January 8, 2013.

The Department met their burden that the Claimant's FAP benefits were correctly determined based on when the verifications were received based on Department policy.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it determined that the Claimant's FAP benefits were correctly determined based on when the verifications were received by the Department based on Department policy.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
