CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Additionally, claimant was allegedly disqualified for a criminal justice disqualification, which allows for a denial or closure of an FAP case if the claimant is classified as a fleeing felon or has 2 or more felony controlled substance convictions since August 22, 1996. BEM 203, 204.

The Department offered no evidence to show that claimant met either of those requirements. There is no evidence that claimant is classified as a fleeing felon, and there is no evidence that claimant has a criminal record, much less 2 or more felony controlled substance convictions. Furthermore, claimant presented a receipt for bond at the hearing showing that he had been released on bond; while claimant was arrested in January, claimant has been released on his own recognizance and is currently awaiting a court date in April. The Department stated that the criminal justice disqualification was activated by an outside agency.

Policy does not require that a case be closed on the say so of a separate government agency. Policy only requires case closure if claimant meets the requirements for a criminal justice disqualification. There is no evidence that claimant meets these requirements, and affirmative evidence that claimant is not subject to a criminal justice disqualification.

Therefore, the Department was incorrect to close claimant's FAP case and should reopen the case posthaste.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department i did not act in accordance with Department policy when it closed claimant's case for a criminal justice disqualification.
