ISSUE

Did the Department properly calculate Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On February 11, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a redetermination packet in order to calculate Claimant's FAP benefits.
2. On March 4, 2014, after utilizing the information provided by Claimant in the redetermination packet, the Department sent Claimant a notice of case action informing him of a reduction in his FAP benefits.
3. On March 11, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the Department's reduction of his FAP benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

At the hearing, this Administrative Law Judge reviewed the documentation provided by Claimant showing an increase in rent and a fluctuating income. After reviewing this documentation with the Department and Claimant, this Administrative Law Judge agrees that Claimant's income does fluctuate monthly.

The Department testified at the hearing that it had not utilized Departmental policy to calculate Claimant's fluctuating income. BEM 505 (July 2013).

In addition to not utilizing Departmental policy to calculate Claimant's irregular income, the Department failed to provide a copy of the budget it utilized to decide Claimant's FAP benefits. This omission did not allow this Administrative Law Judge to review the Department's FAP calculation.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it failed to account for Claimant's fluctuating income per BEM 505.
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it failed to provide a copy of the budget showing the Department's calculation of Claimant's FAP benefits.
