CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Department of Human Services Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Schedules Manual (RFS).

☑ The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking Ols that are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $1000 or more, or
 - the total OI amount is less than $1000, and
 - > the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - ➤ the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - > the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (7/1/13), p. 10.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1.

In this case the Department alleges that Responded was overissued FAP benefits in the amount of $1527 covering the period from August 1, 2010 through October 31, 2011. A verification of employment provided as part of the evidence demonstrated an hourly rate of pay of $7.47 and indicated that the hours varied. The evidence available to the Department also provided the actual biweekly earnings for the Claimant's daughter. The Department did not provide any FAP overissuance budgets for the period in question and provided only one budget for July 2011 which posted incorrect earned income for the period being budgeted. Exhibit 1 pp 46 -47 and Exhibit 1 pp.33. The Department testified that in calculating the OI, it relied on information obtained from the group member's employer which provided gross wages. The Department failed to present any evidence concerning the lawful amount of monthly FAP benefits Respondent was eligible to receive, if any. The Department failed to provide FAP OI budgets or an explanation regarding how the OI was calculated and what specific monthly income amounts were used as the income varied because of hours varying. Based upon the evidence presented and lack of monthly FAP overissuance budgets for the period of overissuance, the Department did not establish an overissuance and did not meet its burden of proof and is not entitled to a recoupment.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (7/1/13), p. 6; BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleged an overissuance of FAP benefits occurred due to the failure of Respondent to report her daughter Portia Lindsey's earnings. The Department alleges that Respondent was overissued FAP benefits in the amount of $1527 covering the period from August 1, 2010 through October 31, 2011. As discussed above, because the Department has failed to establish that Respondent was overissued FAP benefits in the amount of $1527, and because an OI is a condition of suspected IPV, the Department has failed to satisfy its burden of establishing that an IPV of FAP was committed by Respondent by failing to report the earned income of a group member. It does appear that the earnings were not reported in a timely manner; however, they were eventually reported with an SER application. The Department, however, did not establish an overissuance amount and therefore cannot sustain its burden of proof to establish an IPV.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 12. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 13.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 13. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710 (7/1/13), p. 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, because the Department did not establish its entitlement to a disqualification as no intentional program violation occurred.
