ISSUE

Whether the Department of Human Services (Department) properly closed the Claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Claimant was an ongoing Family Independence Program (FIP) recipient.
2. On October 15, 2013, the Department sent the Claimant a Redetermination (DHS-1010) with a due date of November 1, 2013.
3. On November 1, 2013, the Department sent the Claimant a Notice of Missed Interview (DHS-254)
4. On November 16, 2013, the Department notified the Claimant that it would close her Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits as of December 1, 2013.
5. The Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing on December 18, 2014, protesting the closure of her Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 PL 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and 400.57a and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131. Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes the completion of necessary forms. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 105 (March 1, 2013), p 5. Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 130 (May 1, 2012), p 1. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. BAM 130. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. BAM 130. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. BAM 130. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. BAM 130.

The Claimant was an ongoing Family Independence Program (FIP) recipient when the Department initiated a routine review of her eligibility to receive continued benefits. On October 15, 2013, the Department sent the Claimant a Redetermination (DHS-1010) and requested that she return it by November 1, 2013. When the Department did not receive the Claimant's Redetermination form the scheduled interview could not take place, and the Department sent her a Notice of Missed Interview (DHS-254). The Notice of Missed Interview notified the Claimant that it was her responsibility to reschedule the Redetermination interview. On November 16, 2013, the Claimant had not yet returned the Redetermination form or rescheduled her interview. The Department then notified the Claimant that it would close her Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits as of December 1, 2013.

Based on the evidence and testimony available during the hearing, the Department has established that it was acting in accordance with policy when it closed the Claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits for failure to provide the Department with information necessary to determine her eligibility to receive benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it closed the Claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
