Participants on behalf of the Department of Human Services (Department) included [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] [REDACTED].

ISSUE

Whether the Department of Human Services (Department) properly deny the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) application?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On December 2, 2013, the Claimant submitted an application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.
2. On December 20, 2013, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist (DHS-3503) requesting verification of a bank account by December 30, 2013.
3. On January 3, 2014, the Department notified the Claimant that it had denied her application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.
4. The Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing on February 18, 2014, protesting the denial of her Food Assistance Program (FAP) application.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes the completion of necessary forms. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 105 (March 1, 2013), p 5. Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 130 (May 1, 2012), p 1. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. BAM 130. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. BAM 130. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. BAM 130. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. BAM 130.

On December 2, 2013, the Claimant submitted an application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits to the Department. As part of its determination of the Claimant's eligibility to receive benefits, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist (DHS-3503) on December 20, 2013. The Department had requested that the Claimant provide the Department with verification of a bank account by December 30, 2013. On January 3, 2014, the Department had not received verification of the bank account and it notified the Claimant that it had denied her Food Assistance Program (FAP) application for failure to provide the Department with information necessary to determine her eligibility to receive benefits.

Based on the evidence and testimony available during the hearing, the Department has established that it was acting in accordance with policy when it denied the Claimant's application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits on January 3, 2014.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) application.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
