Reg. No.: 14-000708
Issue No.: 3002
Case No.: ██████████

County: Oakland (02-Madison Hts)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE:

HEARING DECISION

Following Claimant's request for a hearing, this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and 400.37; 7 CFR 273.15 to 273.18; 42 CFR 431.200 to 431.250; 45 CFR 99.1 to 99.33; and 45 CFR 205.10. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on May 7, 2014, from Detroit, Michigan. Participants on behalf of Claimant included Claimant. Participants on behalf of the Department of Human Services (Department) included ██████████
██████████

ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) application?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On November 1, 2013, Claimant applied for FAP benefits.
2. On November 12, 2013, the Department sent Claimant a verification checklist requesting various pieces of information due November 22, 2013.
3. On November 27, 2013, the Department sent Claimant a notice of case action informing her that her FAP application had been denied.
4. On April 17, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the denial of her FAP application.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

At the hearing, the Department argued that Claimant's request for a hearing exceeds the 90-day limit in which a claimant can request a hearing following the Department's negative action that prompted the claimant's request. The Department failed to present a notice of case action allowing this Administrative Law Judge to rule on the 90-day limit.

The Department presented documents that it had sent to Claimant to complete information about the self-employment of Claimant's spouse. The Department testified that it did not receive the requested information within the timeframe allotted.

Claimant testified that she brought the requested documentation to the Department and scanned it at the Department office but could not testify as to the date she performed these actions. Therefore, the only evidence to show that Claimant provided the verifications requested in a timely manner is her testimony that she provided the requested information at an unspecified time.

The duty to provide requested verifications clearly lies with the Claimant. BAM 130 (July 2013).

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's November 1, 2013, FAP application.
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it .
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
