ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) application?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On March 18, 2014, Claimant applied for FAP.
2. On March 18, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a verification checklist requesting various pieces of documentation/information.
3. On April 16, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of case action denying Claimant's application for FAP effective March 18, 2014.
4. On May 7, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the denial of her FAP application.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

At the hearing, Claimant produced documentation of the verifications requested by the Department. However, there was no way to document when Claimant provided the Department with the requested documentation.

Claimant testified that she uploaded items of the documentation requested on March 26, 2014. None of the documents provided at the hearing by Claimant bore the Department's timestamps and the only evidence that the documentation was provided in a timely manner was Claimant's testimony. BAM 130 (January 2014).

The Department testified that it had not received the documents provided by Claimant at the hearing in a timely fashion.

This Administrative Law Judge relies on the testimony of the Department and the lack of any timestamps on any of the documents provided by Claimant.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's FAP application.
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it .
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
