CONCLUSIONS OF LAW
Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Department of Human Services

Schedules Manual (RFS).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP

Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Department of Human Services Reference

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

FAP trafficking Ols that are not forwarded to the prosecutor,

¹The correct amount; $

- prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $ or more, or
 - the total OI amount is less than $ and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (7-1-2013), p. 12.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The Respondent intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The Respondent was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The Respondent has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (7-1-2013), p. 6; BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a Respondent who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1; see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true.

See M Civ JI 8.01.

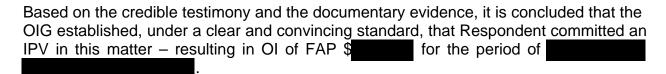

In this case, the OIG witness provided sufficient, unrebutted testimony and other evidence to establish that in August of 2012 a joint USDA-OIG investigation determined that Vendor's store – M was determined to have been trafficking FAP benefits. The Vendor's store had inadequate and expired inventory to support the dollar value of the redeemed EBT benefits. There were no carts, no baskets or bags to carry way the bulk of product which typical redemptions would require. Additionally, there was no optical scanner. The Vendor's employee – said in his statement that 85% of our customers were food stamp recipients and 100% of them were exchanging benefits for cash. Exhibit #1, pages 16-18.
Such exaggerated redemptions included multiple high dollar transactions, close proximity, even dollar and "split high dollar transactions." See Exhibit #1 at pp. 40-41. As a result, the USDA-OIG investigators later determined that the was permanently disqualified from the SNAP program. ²
Between the dates of was responsible for participating in involving the misuse of his EBT card totaling in in unauthorized redemption. The OIG established misuse of the Respondent's EBT totaling over-issuance of FAP benefits as well as his participation in an EBT-backed [and prohibited] line of credit at
There was little SNAP approved food and that which existed was largely expired or spoiled. Exhibit #1, pp. 19, 20 – 29. The OIG witness said, "for the amount of redemption presented each month by the Vendor - there should have been no expired food on his shelves." The Vendor's gross sales dwarfed his local competitors – even before the USDA termination of SNAP participation - by a factor in excess of 3:1. Exhibit #1, pp. 38, 39.
The Respondent testified that he bought large amounts of rice, goat, fish and beef. He said that he usually parked right in front of the store and that store employees put his purchases in plastic bags .
During his direct testimony and on cross examination the Respondent acknowledged participating in a prohibited line of credit with was having a "hard time." Although he said he "never took cash" in exchange for EBT benefits.
On review, the evidence brought by the OIG and the admission of the Respondent established with clear and convincing weight that both an IPV an OI were committed by the Respondent. The Administrative Law Judge gave particular weight to the store employee's recorded statement that "100 per cent of their customers exchanged EBT benefits for cash." Although his employment overlapped the Respondent by only a month he was hired by the original owner and then the present Vendor,
² The store changed with the new owner assuming the lines of EBT credit transactions. See Testimony of

Based on the testimony and the evidence, referenced above it is concluded that the OIG established, under a clear and convincing standard, that Respondent committed an IPV during the period of October 2010 through November 2011. See Department's Exhibit #1 – throughout.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a Respondent committed IPV disqualifies that Respondent from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 12. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 13.

Respondents who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to Medicaid. Respondents are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. See BAM 720, p. 16.

The Respondent's first IPV violation - a one year disqualification is appropriate.

Over-issuance

When a Respondent group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1.

In this case, the Department's witness, Drabek, established with that the Respondent received an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of $\frac{1}{2} \text{Total of the Respondent}$.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

- 1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent \boxtimes did commit an intentional program violation (IPV).
- 2. Respondent ⊠ did receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of $ from the following program(s) ⊠ FAP.

The Department is ORDERED to \boxtimes initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of in accordance with Department policy.

 \boxtimes It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from \boxtimes FAP for a period of \boxtimes 12 months.
