CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Department of Human Services Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Schedules Manual (RFS).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking Ols that are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $1000 or more, or
 - the total OI amount is less than $1000, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - > the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - ➤ The alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (May 2014), p. 12-13.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of the OI is the benefit amount the client actually received minus the amount the client was eligible to receive. BAM 720, p 6; BAM 715 (December 2011), pp 1, 5; BAM 705 (May 2014), p 6.

The Department alleges that Respondent was overissued FAP benefits in the amount of from July 1, 2011 through December 31, 2011. The Department provided benefit issuance summaries to establish that Respondent was issued FAP benefits during the time period in question and FAP Budgets for the months of July 2011 through December 2011 to show how the OI was determined. However, after further review of the FAP Budgets provided, the Department could not explain the basis for the unearned income amount and the recoupment specialist did not calculate the monthly overissuances correctly and the Department could not substantiate the basis for the overissuance amount it alleged. Therefore, the OI budgets regarding unearned income remain unexplained and not supported by any documentary evidence.

Because the Department presented no evidence at the hearing concerning the basis for the unearned income budgeted in Respondent's case, the Department has failed to establish that Respondent was overissued FAP benefits in the amount of and is therefore, not entitled to recoupment.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent intentionally failed to report her RSDI income from July 1, 2011 through December 31, 2011. The Department testified that Respondent's failure to report caused an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of

As discussed above, because the Department has failed to establish that Respondent was overissued FAP benefits in the amount of and because an OI is a condition of suspected IPV, the Department has failed to satisfy its burden in establishing that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits by failing to report receipt of RSDI benefits.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 12. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 13.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 13. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710 (May 2013), p. 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, because the Department has failed to satisfy its burden of establishing that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP benefits, Respondent is not subject to any disqualification.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

| | • |
|-----|---|
| 1. | Respondent \square did \boxtimes did not commit an IPV by clear and convincing evidence. |
| 2. | Respondent \square did \boxtimes did not receive an OI of program benefits in the amount of from the following program(s) \square FIP \boxtimes FAP \square SDA \square CDC \square MA. |
| The | Department is ORDERED to delete the OI and cease any recoupment action. |
