CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Additionally, the Department may request verifications needed to make an eligibility determination. Failure to return properly requested verifications can result in case closure. BAM 130.

Claimant admitted under oath that verifications with regard to checking account balances and asset eligibility were not returned. Claimant admitted to receiving the verification request. No dispute was made as to the necessity of these verifications.

Therefore, as the Department properly requested verifications, and as the claimant received the request, and as the claimant failed to return these verifications, the Department acted properly when it closed claimant's FAP case.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any finds that the Department

 \boxtimes acted in accordance with Department policy when it close claimant's FAP benefits.
