ISSUE

Did the Department properly determine Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On June 10, 2014, the Department sent a notice of case action indicating Claimant's FAP benefits would be reduced beginning July 2014.
2. On July 2, 2014, Claimant reported a change in her child support income.
3. On July 2, 2014, Claimant filed a hearing request indicating her child support income had changed and her FAP benefits needed to be corrected.
4. On July 3, 2014, the Department issued a new case action notice indicating Claimant's benefits for August 2014 would be increased based upon the reported income change. Further, the Department issued a supplement for the month of July 2014 raising the FAP benefits to the August 2014 increased level of $347.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

In the instant case, Claimant originally filed her hearing request to protest the proposed drop in her FAP benefits. The Department testified actions were taken to correct the amount of FAP benefits after the receipt of Claimant's hearing request and the documentation indicating a change in child support payments. The Department testified that Claimant had first notified them of the child support income change on July 2, 2014. Claimant did not dispute this information. Claimant instead testified she had believed the Department had access to the child support payment records and corrected her FAP benefits as needed. The Department testified they do have access to the records but they only access those records at application, redetermination/review or when a change is reported.

At hearing, Claimant testified she was satisfied with the FAP benefits granted for August 2014 forward and satisfied with the Department supplement of her July 2014 FAP benefits. Claimant testified her concern was the decrease in her July FAP benefits.

After reviewing the evidence and testimony provided, this Administrative Law Judge finds the Department properly corrected the FAP benefit levels based upon the change in child support income being reported. Claimant acknowledged she now understood the actions taken by the Department and she indicated satisfaction with the Department's supplement of her July 2014 FAP benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.

Administrative Law Judge for Maura Corrigan, Director
Department of Human Services
