ISSUE

Did the Department properly close Claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits case?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On May 1, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a PATH appointment notice for May 12, 2014.
2. On June 19, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of noncompliance for her failure to attend the PATH appointment on May 12, 2014.
3. On June 19, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of case action informing her that it was closing her Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits case.
4. On June 30, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the closure of her FIP benefits case.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to 45 CFR 233-260, MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

At the hearing, Claimant argued that she had been excused from work-related activities and had filed a medical needs form. The Department argued that Claimant's medical limitations were for a period of 60 days as provided by her physician on the medical needs form.

According to the documentation provided at the hearing, the 60-day period began as of the signing of the medical needs form on February 11, 2014. This medical need was, therefore, no longer valid after April 12, 2014. In other words, Claimant had a medical reason for missing PATH through April 12, 2014. However, Claimant did not return to PATH on April 12, 2014

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it closed Claimant's FIP benefits case for failure to attend her PATH appointment on May 12, 2014.
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it .
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
