ISSUE

Did the Department properly calculate Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits for the month of June?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On May 29, 2014, Claimant notified the Department of the loss of her employment.
2. On May 31, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a verification checklist requesting that Claimant verify her loss of employment by June 10, 2014.
3. Neither Claimant nor the Department could obtain verification of Claimant's loss of employment. The Department utilized the best information available providing that Claimant's loss of employment was effective May 31, 2014.
4. On June 25, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the failure of the Department to increase Claimant's FAP benefits for the month of June.

At the hearing, evidence provided by both the Department and Claimant shows that her loss of employment began when she first notified the Department of same on May 29, 2014. BAM 130 (January 2014).

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it failed to calculate Claimant's FAP benefits beginning with the date Claimant notified the Department that she was no longer employed.
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
