ISSUE

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On June 15, 2014, Claimant applied for FAP benefits.
2. On June 18, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a verification checklist requesting various pieces of information and documentation due on June 30, 2014.
3. On June 27, 2014, Claimant responded to the Department's request for information but failed to supply certain requested documents.
4. On July 10, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest her FAP allotment.
5. On July 15, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of case action informing her that her FAP benefits had been increased effective August 1, 2014.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

At the hearing, the Department testified that one of Claimant's children was still in school and, therefore, should have been included in her FAP group.

Documentation and testimony at the hearing supports that, on July 10, 2014, Claimant completed the Department's request for information/documentation as outlined in its verification checklist on June 18, 2014, which was due June 30, 2014. BEM 212 (July 2014).

Five days after receiving the documentation, the Department issued its notice of case action without utilizing the documentation provided by Claimant on July 10, 2014. BEM 212 (July 2014).

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it failed to include information provided by Claimant on July 10, 2014, when calculating Claimant's FAP benefits.
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
