ISSUE

Did Respondent receive an OI of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits from the Department.
- 2. The Department alleges Respondent received a FAP OI during the period March 1, 2010, through August 31, 2010, due to Department's error.
- The Department alleges that Respondent received a $ OI that is still due and owing to the Department.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Respondent was a Food Assistance Program (FAP) recipient from March 1, 2010, through August 31, 2010. The Respondent and her spouse were both employed and receiving earned income that was not used to determine their Food Assistance Program (FAP) eligibility during this period.

The Department is not alleging that the Respondent failed to report an appropriate change of earned income and assumed that the Department failed to budget their income properly.

However, no evidence on the record was presented to support a finding that the Department used actual income received in March and April of 2010, to determine the amount of benefits that they were entitled to.

If improper budgeting of income caused the overissuance, the Department will use actual income for the past overissuance month for that income source. Any income properly budgeted in the issuance budget remains the same in that month's corrected budget. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 705 (February 1, 2010), p 6.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, finds that the Department did not establish a FAP benefit OI to Respondent totaling $

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, finds that the Department did establish a FAP benefit OI to Respondent totaling
