The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

2. On September 1, 2014, the Department denied Claimant's application closed Claimant's case reduced Claimant's benefits due to excess income.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Additionally, claimant reported to the Department that her child support payments had stopped. The Department stated affirmatively that they were aware that the child support payments had stopped.

The Department stated that the last 90 days of child support were used to calculate claimant's income from child support. However, BEM 505 specifically states that "If there are known changes that will affect the amount of the payments for the future, then do not use the past three months to project."

Claimant reported that her child support income had stopped, and the Department submitted no evidence to show that claimant's statements were false. The Department made no attempt to get verification as to the stopped payments.

Therefore, as the Department was aware claimant's child support had stopped, and because the Department did not dispute that the child support had stopped, and because policy specifically prohibits using the past 90 days of child support income when there are known changes to the child support amount, the Department was in error when it used claimant's past child support amounts to calculate claimant's current FAP budget.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department did not act in accordance with Department policy when it used claimant's past child support amounts to calculate claimant's FAP budget.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is REVERSED.

THE DEPARTMENT IS ORDERED TO BEGIN DOING THE FOLLOWING, IN ACCORDANCE WITH DEPARTMENT POLICY AND CONSISTENT WITH THIS HEARING DECISION, WITHIN 10 DAYS OF THE DATE OF MAILING OF THIS DECISION AND ORDER:

1. Recalculate claimant's FAP budget, retroactive to the date of negative action, using claimant's current child support amount.
