ISSUE

Did the Department properly close Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits and deny the Claimant's Child Development and Care (CDC) application?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Claimant was an ongoing Food Assistance Program (FAP) recipient.
2. On August 5, 2014, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist (DHS-3503) requesting verification of her assets including her bank accounts by August 15, 2014.
3. On August 12, 2014, the Claimant submitted a copy of a bank statement with the account number blackened out.
4. On August 22, 2014, the Department notified the Claimant that it had denied her Child Development and Care (CDC) application and closed her Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits for failure to provide the Department with information necessary to determine her eligibility to receive benefits.
5. On August 29, 2014, the Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing, protesting the denial of Child Development and Care (CDC) benefits and closure of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 601-619, 670-679c, and 1397-1397m-5; the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, PL 101-508, 42 USC 9858 to 9858q; and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, PL 104-193. The program is implemented by 45 CFR 98.1-99.33. The Department administers the program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and Mich Admin Code, R 400.5001-.5020.

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility and this includes the completion of necessary forms. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 105 (April 1, 2014), p 5.

Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 130 (July 1, 2014), pp 1-9.

The Department will sent a negative action when:

- The client indicates refusal to provide a verification, or
- The time period given has elapsed and the client has not made a reasonable effort to provide it. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 130 (April 1, 2014).

The Claimant was an ongoing Food Assistance Program (FAP) recipient when she submitted an application for Child Development and Care (CDC) benefits. Based on information revealed during a recent redetermination of the Claimant's eligibility to receive continuing benefits, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist (DHS-3503) requesting verification of certain assets including bank accounts. On August 12, 2014, the Claimant submitted a copy of a bank statement with the account number blackened out. On August 22, 2014, the Department notified the Claimant that it had denied her Child Development and Care (CDC) application and closed Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

The Claimant argued that she provided the Department with the information that was requested.

This Administrative Law Judge finds that the Claimant failed to provide sufficient verification of her bank account on August 12, 2014, failed to correct this deficiency after August 12, 2014, and failed to make a reasonable effort to provide the Department with the information necessary to make a proper eligibility determination.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it closed her Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits and denied her Child Development and Care (CDC) application.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
