Case No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: October 09, 2014

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Kevin Scully

HEARING DECISION

Following Claimant's request for a hearing, this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and 400.37; 7 CFR 273.15 to 273.18; 42 CFR 431.200 to 431.250; 45 CFR 99.1 to 99.33; and 45 CFR 205.10. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on October 9, 2014, from Lansing, Michigan. Participants on behalf of Claimant included [REDACTED]. Participants on behalf of the Department of Human Services (Department) included [REDACTED].

ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) application?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On June 24, 2014, the Claimant applied for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.
2. On July 9, 2014, the Department sent the Claimant a Verification Checklist (DHS-3503) requesting verification of certain countable assets including a bank account.
3. On July 24, 2014, the Department notified the Claimant that it had denied her Food Assistance Program (FAP) application.
4. On August 28, 2014, the Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing protesting the denial of her Food Assistance Program (FAP) application.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility and this includes the completion of necessary forms. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 105 (April 1, 2014), p 5.

Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 130 (July 1, 2014), pp 1-9.

On June 24, 2014, the Claimant applied for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits. As part of its routine eligibility determination, the Department requested that the Claimant provide verification of any countable assets, including bank accounts, by sending her a Verification Checklist (DHS-3503) with a due date of July 21, 2014. On July 24, 2014, the Department had not received verification of all bank accounts attributable to the Claimant and notified her that it had denied her application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

The Claimant argued that she faxed a copy of her bank statements to the Department. The Claimant testified that she believed that the Department misplaced the verification of her bank account, and may have placed it in another person's benefit file.

The Department's representative testified that the Department did receive documents from the Claimant before July 21, 2014, but did not receive verification of the Claimant's bank accounts. The Department's representative testified that another benefit file of a family member of the Claimant was checked, and that there are no records of the Department receiving verification of her bank accounts.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) application.
