CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, PL 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and 400.57a and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

At the hearing, Claimant testified that she had notified the Department on July 26, 2014, that she had a job interview that conflicted with PATH orientation. The Department acknowledged Claimant's notification of a job interview conflicting with PATH orientation and testified that it did not reschedule Claimant's PATH orientation because there were "no more dates to give her."

In the instant case, Claimant was diligent in already searching for work and had no control over the scheduling of the aforementioned job interview. BEM 233A (July 2013).

This Administrative Law Judge finds that Claimant had good cause as defined by the Department's policy.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it failed to find good cause for Claimant missing the PATH orientation after having notified the Department prior to the PATH orientation of a job interview she had that conflicted with the date of the PATH orientation. .
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
