ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's application for Food Assistance Program (FAP)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Claimant applied for FAP benefits.
2. On March 18, 2014, the Department denied Claimant's application due to the Claimant receiving FAP benefits on his child's mother case where the Department perceived the Claimant as residing.
3. On March 18, 2014, the Department sent Claimant/Claimant's Authorized Representative (AR) its decision.
4. On September 8, 2014, Claimant/Claimant's Authorized Hearing Representative (AHR) filed a hearing request, protesting the Department's actions.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Additionally, the Claimant applied for FAP on [REDACTED]. Department Exhibit 11-21. On [REDACTED], the Claimant's FAP application was denied because he was already on his child's mother case. Department Exhibit 5-10. On [REDACTED], the Department instituted a fee referral for the Office of the Inspector General, which supported the Department's claim that the Claimant was living with his [REDACTED].

During the hearing, the Claimant stated that he did not [REDACTED]. He stated that he [REDACTED]. However, his [REDACTED]. He stated that he had changed it to his new address, but did not have his id with him. The Claimant provided a lease to the Department, but no proof of payment for his monthly rent. He stated that he paid cash and did not get a receipt. In addition, his landlord stated that he did live there when called by the OIG agent.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied the Claimant's FAP application because he did not provide sufficient proof that he was not living with his child's mother.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
