MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING SYSTEM
ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

[REDACTED]

Reg. No.: 14-008712
Issue No.: 3005
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: November 03 ,2014
County: WAYNE-DISTRICT 49

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Lynn Ferris

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and R 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on November 3, 2014, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Trafficking Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for Food Assistance Program (FAP)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on August 6, 2014, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The Notice of Hearing scheduled the hearing to begin at 1:30 p.m. on November 3, 2014. The hearing was completed before the Respondent arrived at 2:25 p.m., almost an hour after the hearing was scheduled. The hearing, therefore, was conducted in the Respondent's absence.
3. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
4. Respondent was a recipient of Food Assistance (FAP) benefits issued by the Department.
5. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to not exchange her Food Assistance Benefits for cash or other non-eligible food items.
6. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
7. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is April 1, 2012 through July 30, 2012 (fraud period).
8. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $65.12 in such benefits during this time period.
9. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of [REDACTED]
10. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
11. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Department of Human Services Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Schedules Manual (RFS).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $1000 or more, or
  - the total OI amount is less than $1000, and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (May 2014), pp. 12-13.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 720, p. 1; BAM 700 (May 2014), p. 7.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV because she trafficked [REDACTED] of her FAP benefits at [REDACTED] y (Store). Exhibit 1 pp. 3. Trafficking is (i) the buying or selling of FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food; (ii) selling products purchased with FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food; and (iii) purchasing containers with deposits, dumping/discarding product and then returning containers to obtain cash refund deposits.. BAM 700, pp 1-2; see also Department of Human Services, Bridges Policy Glossary (BPG) (January 2014), p 66. Trafficking also includes (i) fraudulently using, transferring, altering, acquiring, or possessing coupons, authorization cards, or access devices, or (ii) redeeming or presenting for payment coupons known to be fraudulently obtained or transferred. BEM 203 (July 2013), p. 3.

The Department presented evidence that Store was found in administrative hearings before the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) to have trafficked FAP benefits and had its authorization to accept FAP benefits revoked. To support a trafficking case against Respondent, the Department must establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent engaged in trafficking when she used his FAP benefits at Store.

To support its case against Respondent, the Department presented Respondent's FAP transaction history at Store between April 2012 through July 30, 2012. The Department argued that Respondent's FAP transactions at Store established that she trafficked her benefits at the establishment because (i) there were expenditures that were easily divided by two, and, further explained as follows:

[REDACTED] was purchasing food stamps card for cash money at an exchange rate of .50 cents on the dollar. Transactions completed at [REDACTED] show the transactions are easily divisible by half. [REDACTED] would run cards through at a dollar amount close to a number which is easily divided in half such as [REDACTED]. This allowed them to purchase several cards a day without payment confusion. [REDACTED] then ran the cards through the FNS Point of Sales Device and entered a number that would appear to be a random number, such as, [REDACTED]. Based on the transacted dollar amount SUBJECT [REDACTED] received [REDACTED] in cash for her [REDACTED] food."

Although the Department included statements from Store's owner and employee with the evidence of the USDA administrative findings against the Store, those statements are hearsay and are afforded limited, if any weight, in this case. See MRE 801; MRE 802.

The FAP transaction history does not support a finding of trafficking and requires that the trafficking be based upon hearsay regarding how the Store exchanged cash for food stamps. Although the Owner admitted trafficking, the description of how the trafficking was done as relates to this Respondent's purchases, does not establish trafficking by clear and convincing evidence. In order to establish that a client has committed an IPV, the Department must establish that the client "committed, and intended to commit, an IPV," including an IPV based on trafficking. 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6); 7 CFR 273.16(c). Likewise, the fact that the Claimant reported her card stolen also does not lead to the conclusion of trafficking, especially since one of the cards was in fact recovered in a gas station where the Claimant had not made any purchases. It appears that this case which Respondent trafficked her benefits, is based more on the fact that the Claimant frequented the [REDACTED], rather than being based on traditional proofs such as even dollar amount purchases, close in time transactions, large dollar amounts and purchases which leave a zero or small balance on the EBT card.

Based on the evidence presented, the Department failed to establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent trafficked his FAP benefits at Store. Thus, the Department has failed to establish that Respondent committed an IPV.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 12. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 13.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 13. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710 (July 2013), p. 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department failed to satisfy its burden of showing that Respondent committed a FAP IPV. Therefore, Respondent is not subject to a disqualification from the FAP program.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The OI amount for a trafficking-related IPV is the value of the trafficked benefits as determined by (i) a court decision, (ii) the individual's admission, or (iii) documentation used to establish the trafficking determination, such as an affidavit from a store owner or sworn testimony from a federal or state investigator of how much a client could have reasonably trafficked in that store, which can be established through circumstantial evidence. BAM 720, p. 8.

As discussed above, the Department failed to support its allegation that Respondent trafficked her FAP benefits at Store between April 1, 2012 through July 30, 2012. Thus, the Department is not entitled to recoup or collect the [REDACTED] it alleges Respondent trafficked at Store.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, concludes that:

1. The Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did not receive an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of [REDACTED]

The Department is ORDERED to delete the OI and cease any recoupment/collection action.
