ISSUE

Did the Department properly close Claimant's Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits case?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On October 1, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of noncompliance with work-related activities.
2. On October 9, 2014, the Department held a triage with Claimant and found no good cause for Claimant's absence from work-related activities.
3. On October 1, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of case action informing her that her FIP benefits were scheduled to terminate on November 1, 2014.
4. On October 21, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the Department's closure of her FIP benefits case.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to 45 CFR 233-260, MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

At the hearing, Claimant testified that she had an altercation with the father of her child. This caused her health problems and she was unable to attend the scheduled work-related activities.

This Administrative Law Judge asked Claimant if she had documentation of a physician finding that she could not participate in work-related activities. Claimant responded that she did not have such documentation.

This Administrative Law Judge finds that the Department was correct in finding no good cause for Claimant's missing work-related activities. BEM 233A (October 2014).

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it closed Claimant's FIP benefits case effective November 1, 2014.
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it .
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
