ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's application for Family Independence Program (FIP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On August 25, 2014, Claimant applied for FIP benefits.
2. On August 29, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a verification checklist requesting various pieces of documentation.
3. On October 6, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of case action informing her that her FIP application had been denied effective September 16, 2014, for failure to comply with the Office of Child Support (OCS).
4. On October 13, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the denial of her FIP application.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to 45 CFR 233-260, MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

This Administrative Law Judge attempted to contact the OCS for the hearing, but the OCS failed to answer the phone.

Claimant was sworn in and testified that she had no further information concerning the father of her child.

The Department was asked whether it had any information to show that Claimant was withholding information concerning the father of her child. The Department replied in the negative.

In Black v Dept of Social Services, 195 Mich App 27 (1992), the Court of Appeals addressed the issue of burden of proof in a non-cooperation finding. Specifically, the court in Black ruled that to support a finding of non-cooperation, the agency has the burden of proof to establish that the mother (1) failed to provide the requested verification and that (2) the mother knew the requested information. The Black court also emphasized the fact that the mother testified under oath that she had no further information and the agency failed to offer any evidence that the mother knew more than she was disclosing. Black at 32-34.

Here, the Claimant testified that she had no further information to provide to the Department or the OCS and the Department testified that it had no knowledge of Claimant possessing further information concerning the father of her child.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's August 25, 2014, FIP application.
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
