ISSUE

Did the Department properly close the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Claimant was an ongoing Food Assistance Program (FAP) recipient.
2. On August 1, 2014, the Department sent the Claimant a Semi-Annual Contact Report (DHS-1046) with a due date of September 1, 2014.
3. On September 10, 2014, the Department sent the Claimant a Notice of Potential Food Assistance (FAP) Closure (DHS-1046-A).
4. On September 10, 2014, the Department notified the Claimant that her Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits would close effective October 1, 2014.
5. On November 7, 2014, the Department received the Claimant's request for a hearing protesting the closure of her Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility and this includes the completion of necessary forms. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 105 (April 1, 2014), p 5.

Verification means documentation or other evidence to establish the accuracy of the client's verbal or written statements. Verification is usually required at application/redetermination and for a reported change affecting eligibility or benefit level when it is required by policy, required as a local office option, or information regarding an eligibility factor is unclear, inconsistent, incomplete, or contradictory. The Department uses documents, collateral contacts, or home calls to verify information. A collateral contact is a direct contact with a person, organization, or agency to verify information from the client. When documentation is not available, or clarification is needed, collateral contact may be necessary. Department of Human Services Bridges Assistance Manual (BAM) 130 (July 1, 2014), pp 1-9.

The Claimant was an ongoing Food Assistance Program (FAP) recipient when the Department initiated a routine review of her eligibility for ongoing benefits. On August 1, 2014, the Department sent the Claimant a Semi-Annual Contact Report (DHS-1046) with a due date of September 1, 2014. On September 10, 2014, the Department had not received the Claimant's completed semi-annual report, and it notified the Claimant of the potential closure of FAP benefits if the Claimant did not respond by September 30, 2014.

The Claimant testified that due to extensive flooding, that she was prevented from completing the necessary forms and from providing the Department with the necessary information to determine her eligibility for the Food Assistance Program (FAP).

This Administrative Law Judge finds that the Claimant failed to present sufficient evidence to establish that she made a reasonable attempt to provide the Department with the forms and information necessary to determine her continued eligibility for the Food Assistance Program (FAP). The Claimant is presumed to have received the semi-annual report and was given instructions in writing of how to correct for her failure to return this form. The Claimant failed to return the required form, or request assistance with its completion.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it closed the Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits for failure to provide the Department with information necessary to determine her eligibility to receive benefits.
