ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's application for State Emergency Relief (SER) for energy services?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On June 19, 2014, the Claimant applied for SER for energy services.
2. On June 24, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a State Emergency Relief Decision Notice informing her that her application for energy assistance was denied.
3. On July 1, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the Department's denial of her SER application.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Department denied Claimant's SER application because Claimant's application was not made during the "crisis season." ERM 103 (October 2013).

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's SER application for energy services.
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it .
