MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING SYSTEM
ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

IN THE MATTER OF:

Reg. No.: 14-013865
Issue No.: 3005
Case No.:
Hearing Date: January 12, 2015
County: OAKLAND-DISTRICT 2

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Susan C. Burke

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and R 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on January 12, 2015, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by , Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on , to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.

2. The OIG requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Prior to applying for FAP benefits in Michigan on [REDACTED], Respondent resided in a men's shelter in [REDACTED].
4. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by Michigan and Wisconsin from [REDACTED].
5. Respondent completed the 11th grade and received a GED.
6. Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $1,200.00 for the period of [REDACTED].
7. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Post Office as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT). Prior to August 1, 2008, Department policies were contained in the Department of Human Services Program Administrative Manuals (PAM), Department of Human Services Program Eligibility Manual (PEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Schedules Manual (RFS).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor,
- prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $1000 or more, or
 - the total OI amount is less than $1000, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or

- the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
- the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
- the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (12/2011) , p. 10

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, Respondent applied for FAP benefits on [REDACTED]. In Respondent's application, he informed the Department that he had been receiving benefits from [REDACTED] (Exhibit 1, p. 12.) and that he had been staying in a men's shelter in [REDACTED] (Exhibit 1, pp. 12, 31). Although, the Department presented documentation showing Respondent was issued [REDACTED] food assistance benefits from March 16, 2012 through August 31, 2012 while receiving Michigan FAP benefits, the Department did not present Respondent's [REDACTED] application. Without review of the [REDACTED] food assistance application, it cannot be concluded that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility.

It is also noted that, although Respondent may have received the Michigan application booklet, it is as likely as not that Respondent did not read the application booklet thoroughly with respect to his obligation to report a change of residency. The Department presented no further documentation signed by Respondent showing that he deliberately falsified information about his residency.

Moreover, the Department did not prove that Respondent had no apparent physical or mental impairment that limited his understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities. Respondent completed only 11th grade, and although he received his GED, the fact that at one point he was living in a men's shelter points to possible physical or mental impairment that would limit his understanding to fulfill reporting requirements.

In addition, BEM 203 (10/2011), p.1, instructs:

A person is disqualified for a period of 10 years if found guilty through the Administrative Hearing Process, convicted in court or by signing a repayment and disqualification agreement (e.g., DHS-826, DHS-830) of having made a fraudulent statement or representation regarding his identity or residence in order to receive multiple FAP benefits simultaneously.

In the present case, the Department has not shown that Respondent made a fraudulent statement in order to receive multiple FAP benefits.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 12

In this case, the Department has not established that Respondent committed an IPV. Therefore, Respondent is not disqualified from receiving FAP benefits.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 725, p. 1

BEM 222 (6/2011), p. 2, instructs that a person cannot receive FAP benefits in more than one state for any one month.

In the present case, Respondent received FAP benefits in Michigan and [REDACTED] from [REDACTED]. Therefore, Respondent received an OI in Michigan FAP benefits in the amount of $1,200.00, as sufficiently demonstrated by the Department (See Exhibit 1, pp. 38, 39, for calculation of the OI).

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent received an OI of FAP program benefits in the amount of $1,200.00

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of $1,200.00, in accordance with Department policy.
