ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's Medical Assistance (MA) application?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On February 18, 2014, Claimant applied for MA benefits.
2. Claimant's MA application clearly states that one of his minor children lives with Claimant and has health care coverage through Medicaid.
3. On October 30, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a benefit notice informing him that he was not eligible for Medicaid.
4. On October 13, 2014, Claimant's AR requested a hearing to protest the Department's failure to process Claimant's MA application.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1396-1396w-5; 42 USC 1315; the Affordable Care Act of 2010, the collective term for the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Pub. L. No. 111-148, as amended by the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, Pub. L. No. 111-152; and 42 CFR 430.10-.25. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to 42 CFR 435, MCL 400.10, and MCL 400.105-.112k.

At the hearing, the Department presented its hearing summary arguing that, because Claimant had not requested MA for the minor child he cares for, Claimant was not eligible for MA.

Documentation presented at the hearing shows that one of Claimant's minor children lives with Claimant, making Claimant a "caretaker relative" of a minor child.

The Department provided no documentation of its having explored other MA benefit programs. BEM 105 (October 2014).

The Department made a point of the fact that "the Claimant's children are not requesting MA benefits" and that Claimant is not disabled. Although the Department is correct in stating that the minor child under the care of Claimant was not requesting MA benefits, it ignores the fact that Claimant's minor child is already receiving MA benefits.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it failed to explore Claimant's eligibility for MA benefits as a caretaker relative.
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
