Reg. No.: 14-017415
Issue No.: 3008
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: January 7, 2015
County: Van Buren

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Darryl Johnson

HEARING DECISION

Following Claimant's request for a hearing, this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and 400.37; 7 CFR 273.15 to 273.18; 42 CFR 431.200 to 431.250; 45 CFR 99.1 to 99.33; and 45 CFR 205.10. After due notice, a three-way telephone hearing was held on January 7, 2015, from Lansing, Michigan. Participants on behalf of Claimant included Claimant. Participants on behalf of the Department of Human Services (Department) included Assistance Payments Supervisor [REDACTED] and Eligibility Specialist [REDACTED].

ISSUE

Did the Department properly reduce Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Claimant was an on-going FAP recipient.
2. Claimant provided the Department with information regarding wages her adult daughter had earned.
3. On November 20, 2014, the Department redetermined Claimant's FAP eligibility and mailed her a notice that her benefits would be reduced to $ [REDACTED] per month beginning October 1, 2014.
4. The Department received Claimant's hearing request on December 1, 2014.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

When the Department calculates a FAP budget and eligibility for medical assistance it takes into account, among many other factors, the earned and unearned income the Claimant receives. The Department produced evidence substantiating the earned income Claimant received from two jobs, as well as unearned income that the group received from Supplemental Security Income.

Per BEM 505, "A standard monthly amount must be determined for each income source used in the budget." "Convert stable and fluctuating income that is received more often than monthly to a standard monthly amount. Use one of the following methods:

"Multiply weekly income by 4.3.

"Multiply amounts received every two weeks by 2.15.

"Add amounts received twice a month."

To convert the group members' bi-weekly incomes to monthly, the total is divided by the number of checks and then multiplied by 2.15. Claimant provided checks reflecting her daughter's earnings from employment. The checks, dated October 14 and 28, 2014, were for gross earnings of $ [REDACTED] and $ [REDACTED]. Her average bi-weekly check was $ [REDACTED]. Using the factor from above, her monthly income was $ [REDACTED]. Claimant receives unearned income of $ [REDACTED] which is a combination of RSDI and SSI, along with a Michigan supplement of $ [REDACTED] quarterly. She has no house payment, but she pays "about $ [REDACTED] each year" for property taxes.

It is not within the scope of the Administrative Law Judge's authority to create new guidelines, eligibility criteria, or deductibles that the Department is to use. The issues that can be decided are whether the Department followed policy with respect to each program, based upon the existing rules, laws, policies, etc.

The Claimant did not dispute the amounts used by the Department in her budget. There is no evidence that the Department erred in its calculation of Claimant's FAP benefits after taking into account her monthly earned income and expenses. Claimant questioned why her 20-year-old daughter had to be in her FAP group. BEM 212 (7/1/14) states: "Parents and their children under 22 years of age who live together must be in the same group regardless of whether the child(ren) have their own spouse or child who lives with the group." Therefore, the mother and daughter must be in the same group, and the daughter's income must be included in the group's income when determining the FAP allotment.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's application for Food Assistance Program benefits.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
