CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, PL 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and 400.57a and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

Claimant testified that she was instructed by her Michigan Works (MW) contact to have her school complete a form provided by the PATH program and return it with documentation that it was completed by the school. Claimant further testified that she mailed the completed form to the Department. The Department testified that it had received the form, but that it should have been sent to MW.

The record includes case notes from MW outlining Claimant's lack of participation and the closing of Claimant's case due to the failure to participate. BEM 233A (July 2013).

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department
