Participants on behalf of the Department of Human Services (Department) included Eligibility Specialist [REDACTED].

ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Claimant applied for FAP benefits on September 23, 2013.
2. On September 30, 2013, Claimant was approved for expedited benefits.
3. A Verification Check list was mailed to Claimant on September 24, 2013, requiring Claimant to verify her income and her bank account.
4. Claimant provided verification of her income by the October 4, 2013 due date, but did not verify her bank account.
5. On October 5, 2013, Claimant received expedited benefits of $ [REDACTED] for September 23-30, 2013, and $ [REDACTED] for October 2013.
6. Because Claimant failed to provide all of the required verification, her application was denied on October 14, 2013.

7. On October 31, 2013, Claimant filed a request for hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

“Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes completion of necessary forms; see Refusal to Cooperate Penalties in this item. Clients must completely and truthfully answer all questions on forms and in interviews.” BAM 105.

The Department’s witness testified that, although the Department received verification of Claimant’s employment, it did not receive verification of her bank account. The Claimant agreed that she did not verify her bank account, although she also testified that there is no money in the account. Since she did not provide the verification by the deadline, her benefits were denied. The testimony and the evidence support a finding that the Claimant did not provide timely verification of her bank account..

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant’s FAP application.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department’s decision is AFFIRMED.
