ISSUE

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Claimant applied for FAP on August 19, 2013.
2. A verification checklist was sent to Claimant on August 23, 2013, and her responses were due September 3, 2013.
3. Claimant is a student at [REDACTED].
4. Claimant is working part-time and was required to provide verification that she was working at least 20 hours per week to be eligible for FAP.
5. Claimant provided verification in the form of bi-weekly pay stubs which indicated she had worked 31 hours in one period, and 28 hours in another period.
6. Claimant's case was denied on September 10, 2013.
7. Claimant requested a hearing on December 2, 2013.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

One of the ways that a student can be eligible for FIP, as described in BEM 245, is if they are “employed for at least 20 hours per week and paid for such employment.” Claimant provided verification that she had worked 59 hours over a four week period. While she testified that there were weeks in which she had worked 20 hours or more, she did not provide any verification of when those weeks were, or how often they occurred. With an average work week of fewer than 15 hours, she does not meet the eligibility requirements, and the Department properly denied her application.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant’s application for FAP benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department’s decision is AFFIRMED.
