CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Additionally, the evidence presented at the hearing demonstrated that the Claimant did not return the requested verifications until January 6, 2014, after the original due date of December 16, 2013. The Claimant confirmed the date of the denial was correct. Based upon this evidence it is determined that the Department properly denied the application because no verifications as requested by the Department were returned so that the Department could determine the Claimant's eligibility until after the application had been denied and after the verification checklist due date. BAM 130 (7/1/13).

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied the Claimant's application for food assistance.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is
