CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Family Independence Program (FIP) was established pursuant to the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, PL 104-193, and 42 USC 601 to 679c. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FIP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and 400.57a and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3101 to .3131.

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by the Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1396-1396w-5, and is implemented by 42 CFR 400.200 to 1008.59. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the MA program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and MCL 400.105.

The Adult Medical Program (AMP) is established by 42 USC 1315 and is administered by the Department pursuant to MCL 400.10.

The State Disability Assistance (SDA) program is established by the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b. The Department of Human Services (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers the SDA program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3151-.3180.

The Child Development and Care (CDC) program is established by Titles IVA, IVE and XX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 601-619, 670-679c, and 1397-1397m-5; the Child Care and Development Block Grant of 1990, PL 101-508, 42 USC 9858 to 9858q; and the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, PL 104-193. The program is implemented by 45 CFR 98.1-99.33. The Department administers the program pursuant to MCL 400.10 and provides services to adults and children pursuant to MCL 400.14(1) and Mich Admin Code, R 400.5001-.5020.

Additionally, when determining eligibility for FAP benefits, the household's total income must be evaluated. All earned and unearned income of each household member must be included unless specifically excluded. BEM, Item 500.

In the current case, the Department failed to show that claimant's child support amounts were properly included. The FAP budget, Department Exhibit 4 shows that the Department used an unearned child support income amount of $949. However, after a thorough examination of claimant's child support amounts from Department Exhibit 5, the Administrative Law Judge is unable to reconcile those numbers with the amount used in claimant's FAP budget. The Department was unable to provide information as to how they arrived at the $949 amount during the hearing.

Furthermore, claimant submitted Friend of the Court account histories, Claimant Exhibit A, to show the exact child support amount that had been disbursed to her during the months in question; these amounts did not match the amounts found by the Bridges Program.

The undersigned finds a direct firsthand statement from the Friend of the Court accounting department to be more reliable than a secondhand Bridges search, and therefore finds that the Department used the incorrect child support numbers when calculating claimant's budget.

There is no evidence to suggest that claimant was given a chance to dispute the Bridges determined child support amounts before her FAP allocation was adjusted.

Therefore, as the Department's FAP budget does not reconcile with the Department's own child support amounts, and as the claimant's own court statements show different amounts than that determined by the Bridges system, and as the claimant was not given a chance to dispute the Bridges determination, the Administrative Law Judge finds that the Department must recalculate claimant's FAP allocation, and must use claimant's more reliable Friend of the Court child support statements in doing so.

For that reason, claimant's FAP budget appears to have been incorrectly calculated and must be redone..

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it calculated claimant's FAP allocation.
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
