After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on March 5, 2014, from Detroit, Michigan. Participants on behalf of Claimant included Claimant. Participants on behalf of the Department of Human Services (Department) included ██████████

ISSUE

Did the Department properly close Claimant's Food Assistance Program (FAP) case?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On January 24, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a verification checklist requesting verification of Claimant's bank and checking accounts.
2. On February 4, 2014, the Department sent Claimant a notice of case action informing her that her FAP case would close effective February 1, 2014.
3. On February 10, 2014, Claimant requested a hearing to protest the closure of her FAP case.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual

(BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 271.1 to 285.5. The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

At the hearing, the Department's hearing summary stated that Claimant has a bank account that she shares with her daughter. Claimant testified that what she told the Department was that her daughter did her banking for her and that she does not share an account with her daughter.

This Administrative Law Judge finds it credible that Claimant told the Department that her daughter did her banking for her, not that her daughter shared a bank account with her.

The Department has the right to demand further verification from Claimant that her daughter does not share a bank account with her. BAM 130 (July 2013).

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department

- acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
- did not act in accordance with Department policy when it closed Claimant's FAP effective February 1, 2014.
- failed to satisfy its burden of showing that it acted in accordance with Department policy when it .
