Reg. No.: 2014-28597
Issue No(s): 3002
Case No.: [REDACTED]
Hearing Date: March 19, 2014
County: SSSC West

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Darryl T. Johnson

HEARING DECISION

Following Claimant's request for a hearing, this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and 400.37; 7 CFR 273.15 to 273.18; 42 CFR 431.200 to 431.250; 45 CFR 99.1 to 99.33; and 45 CFR 205.10. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on March 19, 2014, from Lansing, Michigan. Participants on behalf of Claimant included the Claimant, [REDACTED]. Participants on behalf of the Department of Human Services (Department) included Eligibility Specialist [REDACTED].

ISSUES

Did the Department properly deny Claimant's application for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Claimant applied for FAP and Medical Assistance (MA) benefits on January 13, 2014.
2. The Department mailed a Verification Checklist to Claimant, requiring her to verify several claims regarding her financial status. (Exhibit 1 Pages 7-8.) Her responses were due by February 3, 2014.
3. The Department sent Claimant a Notice of Case Action (NCA) on February 11, 2014 informing her that her FAP application was being denied because she did not submit the documents to verify the necessary information. (Exhibit 1 Pages 9-10.)
4. On February 28, 2014 the Department received a Hearing Request from Claimant. (Exhibit 1 Page 3-4.)

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp (FS) program] is established by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, as amended, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). The Department (formerly known as the Family Independence Agency) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 through R 400.3015.

“Clients must cooperate with the local office in determining initial and ongoing eligibility. This includes completion of necessary forms; see Refusal to Cooperate Penalties in this item. Clients must completely and truthfully answer all questions on forms and in interviews.” BAM 105.

Per BAM 130, at page 6, says:

Verifications are considered to be timely if received by the date they are due. For electronically transmitted verifications (fax, email or Mi Bridges document upload), the date of the transmission is the receipt date. Verifications that are submitted after the close of regular business hours through the drop box or by delivery of a DHS representative are considered to be received the next business day.

Send a negative action notice when:

The client indicates refusal to provide a verification, or

The time period given has elapsed and the client has not made a reasonable effort to provide it.

The issue is whether the Claimant provided timely verification in response to the request. The evidence is persuasive that the Verification Checklist was mailed to the Claimant at her address of record. The evidence also establishes that the Claimant did not fully respond by the deadline. Because she did not comply by providing the requisite verification, the Department properly denied her FAP application.

The Claimant testified that she took her various papers to the Department’s Sterling Heights office on January 31, 2014. In her Hearing Request which she dated February 18, 2014, Claimant stated that she tried to contact her case worker to request an extension for her submission. In Case Comments (Exhibit 1 Page 5) the worker noted that she had a conversation with Claimant on February 20, during which the Claimant “stated that she will send her verifications in.” When this was pointed out during the hearing, Claimant then conceded that she had not submitted her verification documentation even at that point. Claimant has subsequently submitted a number of documents for the Department to review, but that does not rectify the facts that caused the Department to deny her application on February 11, 2014.

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Claimant's application for MA benefits.
